

MAYOR WILLIAM GAYNOR OF NEW YORK DIES AT SEA

denounced the deal as a swindle, and declared he would stop it. He had a taxpayers' suit started to prevent the consummation of the deal, and eventually won in the highest court in the state, saving the city of Brooklyn nearly one million dollars and beating the ring out of the same amount.

Next Mr. Gaynor started out to make the elevated roads of Brooklyn pay their taxes. The Brooklyn political ring "stood in" with the traction companies, and had refused to allow the property to be sold for the delinquency. Gaynor compelled the traction companies to pay about $1,000,000 into the city treasury, much to the astonishment of McLaughlin's men. Mr. Gaynor fought the ring in various other ways, its overthrow being complete when, in 1898, Gaynor, declining a citizens' nomination for mayor, took a nomination from the republicans and independent democrats for justice of the supreme court. At the same time the fusion city ticket, headed by Charles A. Schieren, won a sweeping victory. The McLaughlin ring lost its power.

Sends McMane to Prison.
Coincident with the overthrow of McLaughlin was the annihilation of Chief of Police John J. McMane, democratic ruler of Coney Island, whose padded list of voters was used to swing elections with impunity. During the campaign Gaynor had declared that he would send McMane to prison if he attempted to debauch the ballot box again. On election day Gaynor sent watchers to the polling places, having first procured an injunction which forbade interference with them. McMane's henchmen threw the watchers out of the polling booths and the boss himself attempted that famous declaration: "Injunctions don't go here." Gaynor threw himself into the work of the prosecution and after one of the most memorable series of trials in the country's history McMane and his associates were sent to prison for terms of various length.

The next year David B. Hill wanted Gaynor to take the democratic nomination for governor, but Gaynor declined and also refused to accept a nomination for judge of the court of appeals. In 1895 Gaynor refused the nomination for mayor of Brooklyn, because it did not come from a united democracy. In the following year he strongly supported Bryan and the radical democratic national platform. He was a candidate against McClellan for the mayoralty nomination in 1903, but was defeated by the Tammany influence. In 1908 he was a leading candidate for the democratic gubernatorial nomination, but was defeated and supported Hearst. At the election in 1909 he was elected mayor on the Tammany ticket, but contrary to expectations he maintained an independent position and aroused considerable enmity among gang politicians by his energetic reform measures. On Aug. 9, 1910, while about to sail on a vacation trip to Europe, Mayor Gaynor was shot and seriously wounded by James G. Gallagher, a discharged city employee.

FIRST RACE WINNER IS NOT FAVORITE IN SECOND

COWES, Eng., Sept. 11.—Superb weather again prevailed Thursday for the second race in the motor boat contests in Cowes bay for the International cup. Although the Despujols II won the first race, the French entry was not favorite in the betting for the afternoon's competition, as it was thought the boat would win through a fluke.

The American boat, Disturber III, which had to quit in the middle of the course Wednesday because of a slight fire on board, was repaired in time to take part in Thursday's program.

Count Mankowski, driver of the other American entry, Ankle Deep, said Thursday morning while giving his boat a trial spin that he had not given up hope of the U. S. recapturing the trophy.

MOTHER IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tonight this is a sure sign of little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the system and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative" and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs", which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

JOHNNY WRITES

n. y. wensdy—a dock up town is telling a story about how 2 patients of his in a hospitable pretty near skared another one to death with a little look all 3 of them was in one room, and 2 grookers had been excavated sewed up and everything before the other guy arrived well, after this poor boob had also been carved, they put him back in the room with the 2 other fellers

o, pritty well, anders one of them, seeing we each had to have 2 operations

why, how was that, he asks well, says the fellow the dock is a kind of a careless feller he sewed up a sponge in me and a needle in jim, and he had to unhook us agen to get them out by golly, says the poor duck that had just been operated on, it seems to me i kinda feel sumthing in my insides too at that moment the dock himself opened the door and holered, has any of you chaps got my fountin pen, i cant find it nowhere gee, they had to rush for smelling salts and everything, and if the dock hadent found his fountin pen in a nurse's back hair there's no telling what would have happened

MONTE CARLO PRINCE WILL VISIT THE U. S.

Arrives in New York and is Expected to Take a Hunting Trip in the West.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Prince Albert of Monaco, the tiny principality surrounding and including the famous gambling resort of Monte Carlo, arrived in New York Wednesday on his yacht, the Hironelle, for a visit to the United States. It has been reported that he will go to Wyoming for a bear hunt and inspect western oil fields, in which he is said to have invested more than $1,000,000. The prince is traveling incognito as was the case of his last trip here in April, 1912.

Prince Albert, who is an intimate friend of Emperor William of Germany, is 65 years old. In 1884 his father's yacht was wrecked off the coast of Sweden, all the crew perishing except the hereditary Prince Albert. He has been twice divorced, his first wife having been Lady Mary Douglas-Hamilton and his second daughter of Michael Heine, a St. Louis banker.

DR. THOMSON'S EYE TALKS

Reflex Results.

There are a good many results of eye strain that are not confined to the eyes themselves. Such conditions are called reflex. In some cases there is a pain in the back of the head. In some there is frontal headache. Neuritis, St. Vitus dance and even insanity are often cured through a treatment of the eyes. Sick headache is caused in six cases out of ten by defective vision. Stays may always be cured by glasses. Nervousness is a very frequent result of eye strain. Every person who has eyes ought to have them examined once a year at least. Serious difficulties may not only be relieved but prevented. I will make an examination of you at any time free of charge and will tell you your condition. If you do not need glasses I will tell you as quickly as if you did.
